DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 10/03/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant argues that Gast US 2003/0046532 A1 does not teach or suggest using a common interface to receive a first data encrypted according to a wired security format and a second data encrypted according to a wireless security format. The applicant admits that Gast does teach receiving SSL, format, and WTLS format. The examiner points to figure 3; 312 and [0035] in Gast for evidence that data in either format is received through the same, or common, interface.

The applicant argues that Gast does not reasonably teach performing a first and second conversion system. The examiner argues that Gast teaches a system that is able to receive a plurality of data in encrypted formats. In this system if Gast received a first data encrypted in wired security format, it would convert it. If Gast received a second data encrypted in a wireless security format, it would be able to convert that also.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 35 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 35 recites "said performing is performed" the statement is confusing and indefinite. The examiner suggests a replacing "performed" with a synonym such as "executed".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 18, 22-29, 31-36, 38-40, and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gast US 2003/0046532.

As per claims 18, 29, and 36, Gast teaches a security format conversion system including from wired SSL or wireless forats WTLS, [0024], [0030]. Gast teaches converting the encrypted data to a different format, [0033]. Gast teaches a network interface and a server to receive converted data, [0022], [0035].

As per claims 22, 31, 38, and 42, Gast teaches that the security format may be from a WTLS format, or an SSL format after receiving indications from the network, [0024], [0030].

As per claims 23, 32, 39, and 40, Gast teaches that a conversion may be from a WTLS format to plain data [0030].

As per claims 24, and 25, Gast teaches determining format based on a received data including port, and security feature information, [0024].

As per claims 26-28, 33, and 34, Gast teaches that the converter is one network device, and is located at a network choke point, [0022].

As per claim 35, Gast teaches performing at least a portion of the action in hardware, [0034].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 19, 20, 21, 30, 37, 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gast US 2003/0046532.

As per claims 19, 20, 21, 30, 37, and 41 Gast teaches basing security format based on received data, including port number, [0024]. Gast teaches receiving data using a plurality of protocols, [0024], [0030]. Examiner takes official notice that a well known security port is port 443, and that ports 9208-9282 are unassigned and would be obvious choices for an application to use.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. EP 1083722.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

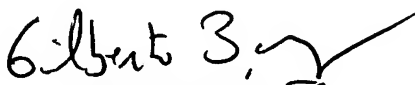

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
